RiteCareA SUCCESS STORY

Brothers, just to let you know what you mean to kids that you may never meet, we are going to drop you a monthly line about kids whose lives you have changed, and changed for the better. It may only be a few dollars out of your pocket, but it is everything to these kids and their families.

Shallita and Shawn Brundidge have four children, the youngest three all diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, which means they have learning difficulties that makes it nearly impossible for them to communicate or understand what is being communicated to them.

Brandon 4, has been in the program for nearly a year and his sister Cameron 3, six months. Their mom, Shallita, says that the change is just a miracle.

Both can easily now communicate their needs, and understand what is being said to them. In fact Brandon's teacher says he is top of his class.

Shallita says that they have gone from angry confused children to just normal kids. She also wanted us to tell you that if it wasn't for RiteCare, none of this could have happened. Be proud of your RiteCare and be proud of yourselves for your support.

Scottish Knight of St, Andrew – 29th Degree.

The Fall 2016 performance of the 29th degree – Scottish Knight of St. Andrew – was held on December 1st. We had four new actors (‘ first timers’) augmenting the tremendous talented cast.

WB Steve Scheffert stepped up in the role of Chief Inquisitor filling in for Pete Van Osdale who was unavailable; Bro. Dan Ploenzke assumed the role of Candidate; WB Tim Boche, on late notice, agreed to be Captain of the Guard; and Bro. Nick Oliveri – a KSA member, volunteered to be our Guard.

Special thanks to these four and all the cast for helping put on another fine performance.

Our second scene is performed on the stage. With the restricted use of the stage (only the front six feet available), we considered moving the scene props to the floor – causing additional work for the Property Committee . But after further discussion and examination, we agreed to remain on the stage – although much more confined.

All in all the scene went well and better than expected. Thanks to the Property Team and the actors for being flexible in adapting to these new restrictions.

We truly have a great set of actors and workers who twice a year help to make this a fantastic degree.

Thanks to all the committees (Costume, Sound, Lighting, Properties, Office crew – Jackie and Ken....) – without you these performances can never happen.

Dear BLACK CROW

Dear Black Crow,

My wife is angry about all the time I spend with my Brothers at my Blue Lodge, The Rite and the Shrine.

This time is very important to me. I really enjoy bonding with my Brothers, but Zelda doesn't understand that I get my male bonding time in a wholesome environment.

How do I get her to understand how important this is to me. Frustrated Mason.

Dear Frustrated,

The answer to this is simple. Tell her you will cut back on meetings and start hanging with your old pals. Then come home with lipstick on your collar and a receipt from Rick's Gentleman's Club for $150.00.

Zelda will encourage you to spend more time in Lodge.

Dear Black Crow,

I am new to the Minneapolis Valley and would like to get involved, but don't know who to talk to. Can you help contact the right people.—Newbie Brother.

Dear newbie,

Everyone in the Valley wants you to be involved as much as you do.

Decide what facets of the Valley you wish to Explore. There are a number of job opportunities awaiting you.

Your Blue Lodge Double Eagle can certainly point you in the right direction and even assist in contacting the right person to assist you in getting involved.

Dear Black Crow:,

Hey, Mr. Crow. I am having a rough time getting to the Valley with all the rush hour traffic, usually get there after dinner is over. Any hints?

Dear Driver,

As the crow flies doesn't always work. The Crow has developed secret routes using back streets and cut outs whenever necessary. Great idea but I always am late for dinner myself. Use the time to talk to your windshield (practice your parts). It won't get you there sooner, it will just seem like it.

P.S. When other drivers give you strange looks, start rolling your eyes and giggling. They usually let you take off first.
